

Program Educational Objectives:

- Graduates will be employable as Software professionals.
- Graduates will be able to develop analytical and computational ability to solve software problems, by applying innovative technical tools in ever changing World.
- Graduates will be able to work in multidisciplinary project teams with effective communication skills and leadership qualities.
- Graduates will be able to embrace lifelong learning with professional ethics