CIRCULAR

It has been decided by the college to conduct improvement of internal examination to the students who have completed their 4 years of B.Tech, course work. Although the proposed exam is improvement of internal examination in a particular subject, the students have to register for both the mid examination as well as the semester end examination in that subject. Interested students may apply in a proforma available in the exam section by paying an amount of Rs.100/- per subject. These exams will be scheduled along with the odd semester regular exams and subsequent supplementary exams (even semester) to be held during March / April 2021. The students may contact their respective HoDs for the detailed time tables.

Eligibility Criteria & Conditions:

1. All the students who got less than 14 marks are eligible for these exams.
2. The students have to register for both the mid exam & semester end examination by paying supplementary exam fee through the examination portal viz. vjitautonomous.com.
3. If marks secured in the improvement exam are less than old internal marks, previous internal marks will be retained.
